

Division: School of Economics and Management

Academic programme: 38.03.01 Economics, Applied Economics and Finance

Mode of study: full-time, full-time and part-time

Programme length: 4 years (full-time), 4.5 years (full-time and part-time)

Programme level: Bachelor's degree

Language of instruction: Russian

Programme description: The programme is aimed at training highly qualified universal economists for enterprises and organizations of any scale and industry: to work in financial institutions, banks, stock exchanges, financial companies, investment funds, state and municipal authorities, economic, financial, production, economic and analytical services of enterprises of various industries, fields of activities and forms of ownership.

The competitiveness of graduates in terms of high speed of digitalization of economic and financial processes and technologies is ensured with the help of fundamental basic training, versatility of the gained knowledge, skills of working in modern software products, combined with the development of soft skills.

Main programme-specific classes:

- Automation of Accounting
- Automated Systems of Investment Management
- Crisis Management
- Bank Management and Marketing
- Banking
- Accounting
- Foreign Economic Activity
- Investments and Investment Analysis
- Information Technologies in Professional Activity
- International Standards of Financial Reporting
- Management and Marketing
- Tax and Taxation
- Organisation of Business Processes
- Organization, Regulation and Remuneration of Labour

- Risk Assessment
- Business Valuation
- Legal Science
- Psychology of Management
- Equity Market
- Modern Financial Technologies
- Insurance
- Project Management
- Business Effectiveness Management
- Financial Markets and Institutions
- Financial Management
- Finance, Money Circulation and Credit
- Econometrics
- Economic Statistics
- Economic Analysis

Programme manager: Irina A. Soloveva, Doctor of Sciences (Economics), Professor